THE SOUTHERN REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

To Meet in Atlanta—The Reforms Necessary to Make Reconstruction Complete—Federal Office-Holders to Be Excluded—The President, Vice-President and Members of the Cabinet to Be Present.

The Appointment of Delegates.

(New York Herald.)

The convention of Southern republicans of the southern states, including Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee, Missouri and Kentucky, which has been called to meet at Atlanta, Ga., on the 12th of October, not only has the unqualified approval of the president and members of the cabinet, as a movement calculated to do more to conserve the peace than any other yet inaugurated, but has also the indorsement of the republican congressional committee, as well as that of prominent northern conservatives, who are most anxious that the political effect of exaggerated outrages may be stilled at once and the action of the agitators on both sides be understood in its true light. In this convention it is understood there will not be a single federal office-holder, the object being to have a fair and truthful representation of the political and financial condition of the southern states, and the reforms necessary to make the work of reconstruction complete and satisfactory to the entire people of the south and the nation. Hence it is determined that the delegates to this convention shall not be mere politicians, but such men as are entitled to respect and confidence by reason of their loyalty during the rebellion, and unbiased now by either federal appointments or regard for federal patronage. The time when the convention is called is so near at hand that the duty of naming the delegates has been entrusted to the state central committees or their chairmen. Texas leads off with a delegation of fifteen, the majority of whom have a national reputation, not only for loyalty during the war but for a conspicuous part in the political history of the nation prior to the rebellion. These appointments have been made by Bowles Baker, the chairman of the Texas republican executive committee, and will be followed by equally good appointments from Louisiana, Alabama and the other southern states. This much assured, the democratic politicians are somewhat perplexed as to how they will act. If the Atlanta convention, composed, as it is hoped it will be, of men commanding the respect of all classes of citizens in the southern states, declares that the only object to be attained is the prosperity of the south, and once more render its citizens harmonious and happy, it is believed this will eliminate the unreliable and unidentified element who have been the agitators on one side while the advocates of "the lost cause" have matched them on the other. The president is pledged not to further encourage appointments in the southern states among the agitators, or among that class who have abused their official position from felfish and corrupt motives.

That the object of the convention may not be misunderstood, or the meeting turned from the purpose for which it is called, it is the intention of the president, vice-president, members of the cabinet—especially the secretary of the treasury and postmaster-general—to be in Atlanta during the session of the convention, together with leading statesmen and capitalists who desire to know the true condition of the south, and who hope to assure the southern people that they, too, have but one desire, and that a united and prosperous country.

New York Tribune: The call for a convention of the republican party at Atlanta, next month, is to some extent indicative of alarm on the part of the leaders at the position of affairs in that section. There is certainly cause for consultation, and a candid avowal as to who should take the burden of responsibility for misrule in the southern states would give the convention plenty to do, and be of great interest both inside and outside of the republican party.

SKULL-BONE OUTRAGES.

The Late Massacre of Negroes in Tennessee.

(Cincinnati Enquirer, September 3.)

From a party of prominent citizens of west Tennessee we learn the inside history of the late killing of negroes near Picketville, Gibson county, in that state. Picketville is near the borders of Carroll county, and is situated in what is known as

THE SKULL-BONE COUNTRY,

where, during the war, radical bushwackers and negroes had it all their own way, and committed not less than 200 murders for purposes of rapine and robbery. Throughout that section the negro outrages have recently been frequent and horrible, and just before the election of the 6th of August, during the campaign preceding which the questions arising under the civil rights bill were bitterly discussed, the alarm among the whites became so great that in many instances women and children believing they were in danger of being burned in their beds by organized gangs of blacks led by white desperadoes, as they almost invariably are. The fears were founded partly on the plot overheard by one Bostwick, a republican, and a member of Jack Rogers' Tennessee regiment (federal) during the war, and partly on the frequent recurrence of murders of negroes by masked men, such as the late one, in which an aged colored man named Dick McKenney, four miles east of Chestnut Mound, Smith county, was shot without provocation in his house, or the shooting of Julia Hayden, a school teacher, at Hartsville, and which, though taking place since the event of which we are about to treat, are a part of its growth and history.

SLEPT OUT OF DOORS,

To confirm Bostwick's statement of a contemplated rising on the 5th of August:

"Two or three negroes in the neighborhood of Gleason, Tenn., in Weakley county, went to their employers on the morning of that day and gave up their guns and asked his protection. The citizens thereupon commenced arming, and to their dismay and in confirmation of their fears they found that not a pound of buckshot nor a pistol could be had in Henry or Weakley counties."

The alarm turned out to be false, howeber, for the night, but on last Saturday week it was proved that Bostwick's warning was not idle. A few days previous Joe Whole and four other citizens of Picketville bought from a negro named Joe Webb, and after eating what they wanted, gave the residue to a negro with them. Their right to do this was disputed by Webb and his friends, and a fight on the spot seemed imminent. The men reached home safely, however, leaving, as it proved, the negroes thirsting for vengeance. On the Saturday named, while two young men named Munroe Morgan and James Warren were riding along the road, some three miles from Picketville, they were fired upon by some thirty or forty negroes hid in the woods. The young men abandoned their horses, which were killed or badly wounded, took to the woods and escaped to the town and alarmed the citizens. Suspecting a negro named Jim Walker of complicity in the shooting, a constable with a posse proceeded to his house, where they captured a negro named Ben Ballard, who confessed that negroes, chiefly from Humboldt and vicinity, had met Saturday night and organized to protect Webb, colored, from kuklux, and after that to go to Picketville, kill five men (the five concerned in the pig affair,) burn the town, take possession of the lands, and, to use their own expression,

"CLEAR UP THE NEIGHBORHOOD."

They had expected to meet another company of negroes that night, but they failed to come, and, after the firing on Warren and Morgan, they dispersed. Sixteen negroes in all were arrested and tried before a magistrate, five more turning states evidence in addition to Ballard.

THE LYNCHING,

as is already known, soon followed. Eighty-six men, armed and masked, called at the jail at midnight and demanded the prisoners. The jailer, being alone and helpless, gave them up. They were first tied in couples, and then the couples all tied together, and marched out of town. Shortly after they had left shots were heard, and next morning six negroes were found outside the limits of the village, four dead, one mortally and the other dangerously wounded, all having been shot several times. They were the six who had confessed, and the other ten

HAD MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED.

Where were they? A search of the country far and wide failed to develop any dead negroes, and it soon began to be whispered about by radicals that the ten had escaped. They had, when the shooting began, according to the thin story circulated, rushed over a bluff, and bound as they were, had gotten away from eighty-six armed men. The citizens saw plainly through it all now. The radicals and negroes, to counteract the effect of the discovery of their plot and the leniency of the whites—the very five men whom they had intended to kill first forming part of their safety escort from court to jail—had taken the negroes out, shot those who had betrayed them and from whom they feared further revelations, and released the others.

The moral is clear to the wayfarer. The very sun shines through the whole affair. The negroes are instigated and organized by white radicals for election purposes, who themselves caused the lynching for effect, as told; while, on the other hand, Governor Brown's offer of an aggregate reward of $43,000 for the lynchers shows where the democrats stand. There are men in Gibson county ready to declare that the head criminal is high in position and far away from the actual scenes of outrage, while the following figures will go far to show why Gibson county and vicinity should be selected for such deep and damnable political plotting. The county is the largest voting county in west Tennessee, except Shelby. Her white voting population is 5,000, negro 1,000. The democratic majority is 4,000. Carroll, adjoining, and in three or four miles of Hicketville, has a voting population of 4,000—1,800 democratic and 2,200 republican. The civil district, "Alwood," in Carroll adjoining this Picketville county, is republican by fifty majority.

GEORGIA PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.

Address of the Master—Georgia State Grange of Patrons of Husbandry.

OFFICE T. J. SMITH, MASTER, }
OCONEE, GA., August 28, 1874. }

BROTHER PATRONS: It becomes my duty, being so prominently identified with the great farmers' movement in Georgia, to invite your serious attention to the demands of time upon our noble order. Our efforts as producers of the soil under a protecting providence, to render our farms self-sustaining, have to a great measure proven successful.

Our good Lord and Master has sent us early and late rains and fruitful seasons, and our so long empty granaries will soon groan with more cheering abundance than they have since the unfortunate war. The excessive hot and dry weather, curtailing our cotton crop, is to be hoped will prove a blessing in disguise. The shrewd and sharp-sighted speculator, who has been so vigilant in heralding through the press the crop of four and a half millions of bales, will be hushed, and the cotton ring, true to their instincts, were forging chains to fetter us—let us prepare to rend as under, and, true to ourselves, families and country, rally under our bright and floating colors, the only promise to the tillers of the soil. We should take time by the forelock, using our utmost influence with our friends who have so kindly come forward and contributed to our necessities, furnishing food, etc., to hold our cotton until developments are made that are satisfactory as to the extent of the growing crop.

Heartily congratulating you upon the spirit of self-reliance and fortitude which you have nobly manifested under privations and disappointments grievous to be endured, and for which we were totally unprepared, let me earnestly and affectionately entreat you not to abandon the policy of making abundance of supplies for home, and heed earnestly the resolution as passed by the cotton states convention of November last year, and impressively reiterated in its session of July last, of planting one-third of our arable land in small grain, one-third in corn and one-third in cotton.

Harken the warning voice of the past, whose syren voice of planting all cotton, hurling us into bankruptcy of property and well near of credit and character. Soon the season of sowing of fall and winter crops—turnips, wheat, oats, rye, etc., will be upon us, and remember earnestly that the judicious and prudent farmer, the good and faithful patron, will gather into their granaries, that themselves, families and animals may have feed in winter. Our brother patrons of all the cotton growing states, pledging to us their hearty concurrence in the one-third system, and, therefore, while our cotton production will be diminished, you may yet hope to realize a greater amount of profit by the advance price of the same. Efforts are being made through the established agencies to try secure supplies of grain for seed at a reduced cost; and can't I ask, with some confidence, where are the good and true patron who have a surplus and will refuse to open their hearts and granaries in furnishing seed to promote the laudabie end we have in view?

Though the hardships, privations and disappointments of the farm are galling, let us bear it with christian fortitude, promising ourselves by such sacrifices a better day will soon dawn, and to hasten that better time we will do all in our power to promote the interest of our noble undertaking. We propose soon to divide our state into districts, over which put wise and discreet deputies of our order, whose duties will be to canvass, lecturing and organizing granges. In this I invoke the free and hearty co-operation of every patron in Georgia. Believing the weal or woe of the south; yes, of the whole country is depending upon the success or failure of the grange movement, I propose, in addition to the deputy movement, to devote my entire time to the work of our order, and will visit, as I have been doing, all parts of Georgia where duty and my good brothers have called me. Brothers, we have a great work to do. Let us set about it in earnest, and kindle a flame of brotherly love throughout our proud old state, and not be content until we enlist under our bright and flying colors every tiller of the soil in our midst.

The political parties of the country will soon be arrayed, and the sagacious politicions attempting to allure us into the entangling alliances of party. Let us prove to them we are true to our profession and faith in adhering strictly to our fundamental law, doing nothing that will savor in the least of committing our order to politics.

Let me, in conclusion, exhort you to cherish and practice the cardinal precepts of our order in every detail of life, and we under the guidance of the evermerciful Husbandman above, shall confidently anticipate for out distressed and dispited class the bright era of prosperity, plenty and contentment. Yours fraternally, etc.,

T. J. SMITH, Master of G. S. G.

BREVITIES.

—Bazaine says the report that he had given his word not to escape "is false."

—The Long Branch hops are pronounced to be "cosmopolitan," which is the Greek for "mixed."

—Joe Jefferson and his son, C. B. Jefferson, are at Draper Hall, Oconomowoe, Wis., for a few day' fishing and hunting.

—At Richmond, near London, the ants, red and black, and without wings, have suddenly assumed the character of a plague.

—A steamer recently made the trip from San Francisco to Yokohama, Japan, in seventeen days and thirteen hours, the fastest passage on record.

—In London there are, according to a recent official report, 800 cabdrivers who are total abstainers from intoxicating drinks.

—Somebody advertises a preparation for keeping a lady's hands free from chaps. A report that she has no money would do the same thing.

—A large majority of the delegates to the cotton classification convention in New York estimated the crop of the present year at 4,045,087 bales.

—Old John Harper left $4,000 to his colored servants in consideration of their fidelity to him. They didn't get their money in time to enjoy the watermelon season in full.

—A newspaper correspondent has wormed out of Brigham Young the important intelligence that he was born on the 1st of June, 1801, at Whittington, Windham county, Vermont.

—The Detroit Free Press says: "Here's another sample of Chicago's meanness: A young man broke his engagement with a young lady because he observed her scratching her back on the edge of a door."

—A curious fact in connection with General Custer's long march through the unexplored Black Hill country is, that prior to setting out he ordered dinner to be served for him at his headquarters on the 31st of August, on his return. He actually got back twenty-four hours before he agreed to.

—A youth asked permission of his mother to go to a ball. She told him it was a bad place for little boys. "Why, mother, didn't you and father go to balls when you were young?" "Yes, but we have seen the folly of it," said the mother. "Well, mother," exclaimed the son, "I want to see the folly of it, too."

—An exchange, ridiculing county fairs, which make no effort at good shows, says that the Clearfield fair consisted of a calf, a goose and a pumpkin. It rained so hard the first night that the goose swam off, the calf broke loose and ate the pumpkin, and a thief prowling around stole the calf, and that ended the fair.

—A boy let fall a jug containing fifty cents' worth of molasses which he was carrying along the avenue, and his wails of dispair, as he saw the stuff streaming over the flag-stone, secured for him thirteen shillings from the benevolent pedestrians Fifty cents for molasses, two shillings for a jug, and seven shillings for the circus is the way the boy figured as he started for a crockery store.

—The Beecher-Tilton scandal has become the subject of much intelligent discussion in the newspapers of Europe. A Hamburg newspaper informs its readers that a suit has arisen between the two American "Popes," Beecher and Thylden on account of the discovery of a packet of love letters which the former had addressed to the daughter of the latter. Thylden claims damages in $100,000, but Beecher will give only half that sum. A settlement is probable.

—The Brooklyn scandal is furnishing a world of entertainment in the salons of Paris and other continental cities. Accuracy in slight matters of detail does not seem to be indispensable to the enjoyment which can be derived from the scandal. A Marseilles paper speaks of it as "L'Affaire Beechor, Stilton et Victoria Vodult," and gravely informs its readers that said "Beechor, Stilton and Victoria Vodult" are clergymen of the Anglican denomination! These three clergymen are represented as having been beguiled from the paths of virtue by an artful syren, whose name is given as "Madame Breechestow!" And such is the vanity of literary fame!

—In the northwestern corner of the territory of Wyoming is located one of the most beautiful lakes on this continent, if not in the world. Adjacent to it are four majestic rivers, the Yellowstone, flowing into the Mississippi at a distance of 1,300 miles; the Mississippi itself, which finds its way to the Gulf through the father of waters; the Columbia, which leads to the Pacific, and the Colorado, which, passing through the most remarkable canon in the world, discharges its waters in the Gulf of California. Grouped around this lake and the in midst of this water-shed is perhaps the grandest display of cataracts, hot springs, geysers, mud volcanoes, and natural architectural beauties to be found on the face of the globe.

THE Savannah Daily Advertiser reappeared yesterday, looking very much as of old, except in its title. The latter part of the bungling nomenclature is dropped, but the unexpired subscriptions and advertisements of the late Advertiser-Republican, are retained, and will be completed. The new proprietor is Mr. George N. Nichols, with Mr. F. W. Sims as his business manager. The name of the editor-in-chief is not divulged.

Brownlow on the War-Path.

Parson Bronlow's recent letter on the civil rights bill, in reply to the open letter of Hon. Truman Smith, of Connecticut, will not be pleasant reading for Slippery Dick or for any other candidate that has shouldered "the sum of villainies and the quintessence of abominations." The letter is full of terse and characteristic sentences, but its length precludes its full publication in our columns this morning.

The clear-sighted old politician starts off with a statement of the recent elections for local officers in Tennessee. The result was an overwhelming defeat of the republican party, "a defeat from which the party cannot recover within the next five years, and from which it will not probably recover during the lifetime of the present generation." In his own county the usual republican majority of one thousand has become a democratic one of seven hundred. In Shelby county, where the republican ticket was elected a year ago by about one thousand majority, the democracy now command five thousand majority. Thousands of ex-union soldiers, for the first time in their lives, went to the polls to deposit democratic ballots, swearing as they did that they would never again vote with a party which supported the co-education of the races. If congress should pass the bill, the republican party would not have any chance of success in any southern state except in South Carolina, and possibly in Mississippi.

He then proceeds to state its fatal effects on the school system of Tennessee, where "both races are now perfectly equal in the enjoyment of free school privileges." She now supports 598 colored schools, every one of which will be closed if the bill becomes a law. He shows the impracticability and injustice of mixed schools; and says that the proposition to secure equal benefits in every state to the colored race was "scornfully rejected by the bootblacks, barbers, pastry-cooks, bar-tenders and thieves in congress from the cotton states."

He declares that it is no exaggeration to say that the very name "republican" is become odious with thousands of the adherents of that party because of this attempt to compel the co-education of the races. "Had the republican candidates in our late election declared for the civil rights bill, instead of against it, the democratic majority would not have been less than 200,000."

He concludes with a blast against this ultra and unnecessary party measure, which must result in the destruction of the republican party in the south and the certain injury of the colored people. It is time, he says, that the "responsible, representative, loyal men of the south were consulted with reference to measures operating upon their section." He pronounces the bill emphatically sectional in its practical operations; and his last sentences lament the probable stoppage of the truly missionary work of educating the blacks, which the tax-paying whites of Tennessee have voluntarily undertaken.

THE board of advisement consisting of the governor and heads of departments under the act providing for a geological survey of the state, met yesterday in the office of the school commissioner, to inquire into the qualifications of applicants for the position of assistant geologists. Messrs. A. R. McCutchen, of Walker county, and Wm. S. Schley, of Savannah, were elected. The state geologist was authorized to engage the services of Messrs Edward Hunter, of Jefferson county, now an assistant of Prof. Charbonnier, of the state university, and D. C. Barrow of Oglethorpe county, a graduate of the university, to render aid as chemist and clerical assistant and engineer in his discretion. The meeting adjourned to meet at the call of president.

THE Washington correspondent of the Courier-Journal says that the carpet-baggers are not willing that the army officers shall have any discretionary power. Their plan is to have the military to do whatever they are told to do by the district attorneys and marshals, and, as these civil offices in the south are filled by the most malignant of carpet-baggers and scalawags, they reckon confidently on their doing all they want for political purposes. Another branch of the same political game is to have a convention of these robbers and slanderers of the southern people at Atlanta on the 12th of October, who are to cook up electioneering documents designed to affect the congressional elections in the north in November.

THIRD Assistant Postmaster-General Barber is in New York devising the best means for carrying out the new law in relation to the prepayment of postage upon newspapers and periodicals, which goes into effect on the first of next January. As the papers are to be weighed in bulk, and as the stamp cannot be affixed to a bag that would in most cases contain other mail matter, the most feasible plan appears to the department to consist in the use of receipt books and stubs, the receipts to be torn off and given to the publisher, and the stubs, after the necessary memoranda are made, to be stamped with the requisite stamp or stamps, and retained by the postmaster.

THE constitutional convention of Arkansas has completed its work, and the enrolled copy has been signed by all the members except seven republicans. The body has adjourned to meet on the 20th day of October, seven days after the submission of the constitution to the people for ratification. Should the constitution be ratified, the convention will stand adjourned sine die. A full state ticket will be elected at the time the vote is taken on the constitution. The indications now are that Elisha Baxter will be his own successor in the gubernatorial office.

A SPECIAL cable dispatch from Rome announces that two new Catholic dioceses have been created in the south—the one at San Antonio, Texas, with Vicar-General Pellicer, of Mobile, as its first bishop; and the other consisting of the Rio Grande district of Texas, which has been made a Vicarate Apostolic, with Brownsville as its headquarters, and Rev. D. Manacey, of Montgomery, as its bishop The new bishops are cousins, and both are natives of St. Augustine, Fla.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9—Conrad Heim, a saloon keeper, who was arrested last night, at the instance of his wife, shot himself dead this morning.

Political Notes.

Major Hargrove will probably be the radical candidate for congress in the district.

Alex. M. Speer was nominated on the thirteenth ballot for representative from Spalding. His opponents were legion.

Congressman Purman, of Florida, has appointed John W. Hale a cadet to West Point, and Robert J. Branden to the naval academy. They are both negroes.

There is no royal road to political victory, any more than there is to learning. It can only be won by thorough organization. Let the democrats of Georgia remember it.

John P. Cochran, the democratic candidate for governor of Delaware, is master of a grange in Middletown, and is one of the most extensive peach-growers in the state.

Savannah News: A Mr. Hopps pops up as an independent candidate in the third senatorial district in opposition to the Hon. Willis Clary. Really we are sorry for Hopps. It is a pity that he should sacrifice himself.

Democratic nominations for representatives: Jasper, L. A. Sane; Jones, H. B. Ridley; Hart, Jefferson Holland; Walton, James W. Carter; Pulaski, Messrs. Harrell and Kinchen.

A correspondent of the New York Sun, a merchant of New York, says the republican party is in favor of

I. Paper money.
II. Protection.
III. Stealing all you can.
IV. Muzzling the press.

Eufaula Times: Alabama is the only southern state, in which the white people are in the majority, that is ruled by the radicals. This is a humiliating fact that should touch the pride and stimulate the efforts of the whites to recover the rule of the state. A white majority governed by a black minority is indeed a shameful spectacle.

Valdosta Times: Whitely, the disciple of amalgamation, and candidate for congressional honors, arrived in our town last Thursday night and we learn, left yesterday for Berrien county. His reception in Valdosta, we imagine, was not a very pleasant one, as a number of boys greeted him with "tin pan" and "cow bell" music. What his business is, and what his reception will be in Berrien, we can't imagine as there is but one radical in the county We hope friend Frank of the Forester will have an eye to his manuverings.

The conservatives of Virgina have been fortunate in their nominations for congress. Among the candidates are J. Randolph Tucker, John Goode, ex-Gov. Gilbert C. Walker, Beverly Douglas, George C. Cabell and John T. Harris, all of whom are men of marked ability. The probabilities favor the election of all of these except perhaps Mr. Goode, who has great odds against him in a large republican majority and the patronage of the Norfolk navy-yard. Virginia has therefore a fair prospect for a congressional delegation compared favorably with those contributed by her to the nation in the days before the war.

Calhoun Times:—Maj. R. E. Wilson, the nominee for state senator from the 43d senatorial district, whose name we raise to our masthead this week, is a South Carolinian by birth, moved when quite young to our state and settled Murray county. He was chosen by the people of his county to represent them in the Georgia senate in 1859. He was then about 22 years of age. When the civil strife between north and south had come, he volunteered and went into service and shortly afterward became Major of his regiment. In the struggle he received several wounds. Since the surrender he has made farming his occupation, has figured little in politics, but has always voted the democratic ticket. He possesses a good education, is a fluent speaker, and a high toned gentleman. Democrats need not feel any remorse of connscience in voting for him.

A Father Selling his Daughters into Prostitution.

[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]

NEW YORK, September 9.—Charles Disner was arrested last night for selling his daughter, aged 13, to Peter Hallock, keeper of a disreputable house. Hallock was arrested while taking the girl to his house. Disner is said to have disposed in the same way of two other daughters.

Fires.

CINCINNATI, September 9.—The business portion of Russellville, Kentucky, was burned on Sunday last. Losses about $25,000.

NEW YORK, September 9.—The forest fires are raging in the highlands of the Hudson, opposite Fort Montgomery. Many acres have been burned over and the fires are still burning.

Two Section-hands Killed.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

CINCINNATI, September 9.—Two section-hands on the Indianapolis, Cincinnati and LaFayette railroad were run over and instantly killed near the river-side this morning by a passenger train which was racing with a passenger train on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad. The men were behind a short curve and were unable to get out of the way.

WASHINGTON, September 9.—For Thursday, over the South Atlantic states, falling barometer and stationary temperature with northerly winds and clear weather, over the Gulf states stationary or falling barometer with northeast to sourheast wind and partly cloudy weather with stationary temperature, except threatening weather and light rains.

Car Shops Burned.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

CINCINNATI, O., September 9.—The car repair shops of the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad at Zaleski, Ohio, were burned this morning, with about twenty-five freight cars, most of which were old and out of repair. The loss is estimated at $75,000.

General Sherman.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 9.—In connection with the banishment of the general of the armies from the seat of government, it may be said that the carpetbaggers and scallawags say of Gen. Sherman that he is an "uncontrollable cuss."

RENOMINATION OF HON HENRY R. HARRIS

(Special to the Constitution)

NEWNAN, GA., September 9.—The democratic convention met here to-day and B. A. Thornton of Muscogee was appointed president. Harris, Mobley and Featherstone were put in nomination. 1st ballot Harris 22, Mobley 12, Featherstone 4 and so on without much change until after the 9th ballot, when Featherstone was withdrawn and Harris nominated on the 10th ballot.

THE AUGUSTA REPUBLICANS.

AUGUSTA, September 9.—The republicans of this district met in convention here to-day. Nine counties out of sixteen were represented.

J. Heard, colored, of Greene county, was elected president.

The convention, after being in session about five hours, adjourned without making a nomination for congress.

A resolution was adopted that it was not deemed expedient to make a nomination.

THE SAVANNAH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

SAVANNAH, GA., Sept. 9.—The democratic convention for the first state senatorial district met at Eden, Ga., yesterday, and nominated Rufus E. Dester for state senator.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Resolved, That we consider the civil rights bill as a blow aimed at the social peace and happiness of both the white and colored races of the south, subversive of the order of nature, and fraught with evil only; and as such, we expect all our people, irrespective of race or party, or any other consideration, to lend their aid and influence to defeat said bill. Regarding repudiation bonds it was resolved that inasmuch as said bonds were issued without lawful warrant and authority and against the openly-declared and earnest protest of a majority of the people of Georgia, we pronounce them utterly void and fraudulent, and we hold our representatives in the next general assembly as pledged in good faith to use there utmost efforts to prevent the payment of said bonds.

THE TENNESSEE NEGRO PARTY.

MEMPHIS, September 9.—The republican congressional convention yesterday nominated Barbour Lewis. The platform adopted arraigns the democrats for frauds in the August elections, and responsible for the killing of negroes in the state; advocates the passage of the civil rights bill; opposes mixed schools; favors the reduction of taxes; the return to specie payment; opening of the mouth of the Mississippi river; endorsed the present administration condemns the sending of armed expeditions against Memphis to suppress riots; and condemns Gov. Brown and the Memphis press as inciters of troubles between the races. Delegates were selected to the gubernatorial convention at Chattanooga, September 16th.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA NEGROES.

COLUMBIA, S. C., September 9.—There is a dead lock here in political circles, caused by the failure of the committee on credentials to report.

The convention met to-day at 1 o'clock, but adjourned without doing anything; met this evening at 5 o'clock, and again adjourned until to-morrow.

The committee on credentials are not yet ready to report, and have not reached the Charleston delegation. It is currently reported on the streets that some of the members of the committee are on a strike, and that the Patterson-Chamberlain ring are using money and purposely causing delay. No new developments have occurred, except a rumor that Patterson is using his money to seat the Brown delegation; and that the committee will probably report adversely to the Mackey delegation.

Moses denies that he has withdrawn, and professes to be sanguine of his success.

A considerable ripple was caused by the rumor that Hardy Solomon would be put up as the third man for governor, and there seems to be some color of truth in the rumor, but it is hardly possible that the convention will nominate him.

Patterson is circulating a telegram, purported to have been received from Grant, endorsing Chamberlain.

A large number of delegates to the state tax union, arrived on the evening trains, and the meeting promises to be largely attended.

OPPOSITION TO MOSES AND CHAMBERLAIN

COLUMBIA, S. C., September 9.—The opposition to Moses and Chamberlain gains strength, and a primary caucus of the leading spirits of the opposition will be held here to-morrow, and at nine o'clock, when steps will be taken to decide on the third man. Blythe of Greenville and S. A. Brooks of Charleston lead the movement. Among the gentlemen prominently spoke of by the opposition are Judges Green, Winsmith and others. There is considerable hope now of beating both Chamberlain and Moses, as the leading conservatives have indicated that if either of the above named gentlemen get the nomination, or any other republican, the conservatives will accept him and make no new nomination. Green seems the most prominent.

MASSACUSETTS DEMOCRACY.

WORCESTER, September 9.—The Massachusetts democratic convention nominated the following ticket: For Governor, Hon. Wm. Gaston, of Boston; for secretary of state, Benj. F. Wills; for treasury, Nathan Clark; for auditor C. Osgood Moore; for attorney general Waldo Colburn, Resolutions were adopted which declare devotion to the constitution; demand

EQUAL RIGHTS FOR ALL RACES, denounce federal interference with elections, and condemn all lawless acts of violence against colored men and persons who have settled in the south; oppose the sumptuary laws, especially the prohibitory law and its accessories; advocated stringent license law; demand vigorous reform in state affairs; and commissions and state constable; favor fostering with care the interest of labor and of industrial classes and commend that candidates be nominated to the suffrages of the people.

ABOLITION OF RING;

NEW YORK LIBERAL REPUBLICANS.

ALBANY, September 9.—The liberal republican's convention resolved that the liberal republicans of New York stand for the defense of the constitutional liberty; for the right of local self government and for the restoration of the delegated power, and for a strict account on the part of the public officers for the realization of the constitution currency and for the rights and interests of the masses of the people; also that Grant's administrations has failed to fulfill the reasonable expectations of the people and he has pursued a financial policy; has invaded the rights of sovereign states by imposing upon them governors by means of the bayonet; has employed spies and informers to plunder our merchants; established systems of terrorism; paralyzed enterprise; has conspired with

VACILLATING AND IMBECILE

CORRUPT MEN AND MONOPOLIES

to prey upon the community; and has kept in existence in the District of Columbia an infamous ring in whose steps, although carefully screened by their confederates in congress, high officers of the government have been proven to be participants. Also, resolved, that the liberty of the press is essential to the security of freedom; that the sedition law of 1798 abridges was an infractiou of the constitution which the justly exasperated nation resented, by exiling forever from power a party responsible for its enactments; and condemns the Poland-Frelinghuysen bill as an act of tyranny; declares against a third term; favors the return to specie payments and a free banking system; demanded a report of the congressional enactments for the supervision of elections, and denouncing the governing of states by legislative commissions.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND THE PRESS,

ALBANY, Sept. 9.—In the liberal convention, Simon Thompson was chosen temporary chairman, and addressed the convention, showing the great necessity for a new party, whose reform protestations were honest.

The secretaries were appointed as a committee on permanent organization. Resolutions and credentials were appointed and recess till 4 P. M.

ALBANY, Sept. 9.—The liberal republican convention resolved not to make any nominations, and adjourned to meet again on September 29th.

A NATIONAL CONVENTION.

An effort is being made in this city to call together the members of the executive committee of the national democratic convention to consider the propriety of calling a convention of the democracy, north and south, to disclaim any sympathy with the reported disorders in the south.

THE TRENTON MASSACRE.

Only Five Persons Really Killed.

[By Telegraph to the Constitution.]

CINCINNATI, September 9.—A special dispatch says that Governor Brown arrived at Memphis yesterday from Trenton, the scene of the late masked murder operations. He says that the conviction of respectable persons in Trenton is that only five negroes of the sixteen taken from the jail were shot dead, one negro is now in jail getting well, the rest escaped. No trace of human remains to be found, except of the five men above referred to. A new grand jury has been impanelled in Gibson county, and is busy endeavoring to find indictments against lawless jail breakers and murderers. Governor Brown declares his intention to leave nothing untried to ferret out all outlaws concerned in the cowardly and bloody work.

NASHVILLE, September 9.—A special dispatch from Jackson, Tenn., says that Judge Carthel reached this place and opened and immediately adjourned the circuit court, in order to return to Trenton, and protract the session of his court there sufficiently long to allow the grand jury time and opportunity to follow up their investigations into the recent disturbances in Gibson county, leading to the killing of the negroes who were taken from Trenton jail. A rumor, evidently well founded and discussed on the streets here, is to the effect that General Alexander W. Campbell, of this place, one of the most prominent lawyers in Tennessee, is retained at a fee of $30,000 to defend certain parties, in the suspected district, in case they are arrested. General Campbell has been heard to remark that there are two sides to all questions. The preliminary trial of Pat Lyons and Bowen Sanders, the alleged murderers of Julia Hayden, the colored school teacher in Treusdale county, is now in progress at Lebanon, Tennessee. A large number of witnesses have been summoned by the state and but few on the part of the defendant.

Indignation meetings againt the two late tragic outrages in Tresudale and Gibson counties are being held in different counties throughout the state.

Yellow Fever.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, September 9.—The circular issued by Secretary Bristow yesterday, on the subject of yellow fever, will be sent to all the various health organizations in the United States enclosed in one from this office of the improvising surgeon of the United States marine hospital service, soliciting from organizations and local health officers such information and suggestions touching the subject matter thereof, as may conduce to the greatest efficacy and harmony of action between the state and municipal health authority on the one hand, and officers of the national government on the other.

The board of health say no cases for alarm from yellow fever. It is understood that there are but few cases quarantined, but no danger of spreading or becoming epidemic. The weather is conductive to a general health, the nights being cool and the fever is afraid as ever of cold weather.

No apprehensions are felt by the public.

GALVESTON, TEX., September 9.—G. W. Peets, a health officer, denies the report that yellow fever prevails here; and says there has not been, nor is there now a single case of yellow fever in Galveston during the year 1874. The same is true of all the gulf ports of the state of Texas.

The Plymouth Martyr.

(By Telegraph to the Constitution.)

BROOKLYN, September 9.—Moulton returned to town to-day from Boston, but was inaccessible to interviewers. His statement is expected to-morrow.

Tilton and his counsel held an interview with Moulton this evening, but the purport is unknown.

Tilton's four children—Florence, Alice, Carroll and Frank—visited him to-day. This is the first visit they have paid him since his home was broken up. Alice to-day left for a boarding school at Washington, Connecticut.

Suicide.

(Special to the Constitution.)

PHILADELPHIA, September 9.—George Rich, aged twenty-eight years, who was residing at 650 north 15th street committed suicide this morning by taking arsenic.

Fredrick Ruchens, a German grocer, who was doing a thriving business on Duffield and Tillany streets, committed suicide by hanging himself to-day. The supposed cause was temporary insanity.

Hoosac Tunnel.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

NORTH ADAMS, September, 9.—The first of November has been fixed upon as the date for running the first train through the Hoosac Tunnel. Steel rails are to be laid through the tunnel instead of iron ones. It is probably that regular running trains through tunnel may be delayed until the first of December in consequence of the incompletion of the bridges.

The Columbus Dispatch.

ON or about the first day of September, instant, will be commenced the publication, in the city of Columbus, Ga., of the COLUMBUS DAILY DISPATCH. The Dispatch will be devoted to the general diffusion of intelligence among the masses; and will be bold and uncompromising in its opposition of WRONG, and the sturdy defender and advocate of RIGHT. While it will equally condemn corruption in either of the political parties of the country, it will be the firm champion of honest democracy which can be the only thorough exponent of southern feeling and political sentiment. Its devotion to popular democratic government shall be unswerving, and find expression in every laudable effort to disseminate and uphold its honored tenets.

As the interests of our country are based upon an intelligent agriculture—as the further development of this science must constitute the measure of our prosperity—the Dispatch will give especial prominence to such information as will promote its aims and advancement. The Patrons of Husbandry, whose associated efforts have already revolutionized agriculture in the south by the practice of conservative husbandry, will have in the Dispatch an earnest friend and well-wisher.

THE DAILY DISPATCH, while giving all the latest foreign, national and state news, will strive to render its local columns fresh, newsy and always attractive. Its market and financial reports from all the trade centers will be full and accurate. The cotton and factory interests of Columbus, her unrivaled water power, her advantages as a manufacturing center, her general growth and prosperity, it shall be the earnest labor of the Dispatch to advance, develop and render eminently progressive.

Alabama politics and her general interests will be given prominence in the columns of the Dispatch, whose province it shall be at all times to oppose corrupt rule, and assist the honest efforts of the people to regain their heritage of a government based upon the intelligence and conservatism of the masses.

THE WEEKLY DISPATCH will give a weekly resume of all foreign, national and current news; will herald all advancement in the arts, sciences, agriculture, and constitute for the general reader a mirror of the world's progress.

With this announcement we tender to the citizens of Columbus and surrounding country, THE COLUMBUS DISPATCH, feeling confident it could not be intrusted to a more progressive, enlightened, liberal and chivalrous people.

Both the Daily and Weekly Dispatch offer superior inducements to advertisers, whose interests shall always receive liberal and constant attention.

THE DISTRICT COURT.—The United States District Court met yesterday morning at its usual hour, Hon. John Erskine, Judge, presiding.

The United States vs. Henry Myers; information for illicit distillery. Verdict—guilty. Sentence, one year's imprisonment in jail, and a fine of $1,000 and costs.

The United States vs. Charles Bridgman; same charge. This case was tried and argued at length. The jury found the defendant guilty. His counsel, Mr. Branham, made a motion in arrest of judgment, upon the ground that there were more counts in the information than were warranted by the affidavit, upon which the prisoner was arrested and carried before the commissioner. The motion was over-ruled, and the defendant sentenced to one year's imprisonment, and a fine of $1,000 and costs.

The same vs. Adam Malone; information for illicit distilling, &c. Prisoner plead not guilty, and went to trial. Verdict—guilty. He was sentenced to nine months in jail, and a fine of $1,000 and costs. Emory Speer for defence.

Court then adjourned until 10 a. m., to-day.

The following additional traverse jurors were sworn in yesterday: Frank Reimann, J. R. Jones and Thomas McFarlan.

The marshal was also directed to complete the panel by this morning.

JOEL BRASWELL RELEASED.—Joel Braswell, the man who has been confined in jail for some time past for bigamy, was released yesterday by Judge Daniel Pittman upon a writ of habeas corpus. The charge of bigamy was preferred against Joel by Miss Nancy Anderson, of Fayette county, who charged him with marrying her there, while he had another wife living in Atlanta. She followed him here, and had him arrested on a warrant which was issued by Justice Ezzard about the 21st of August. At that time Miss Nancy was declaring war against him with great energy, and she left here ostensibly to have an officer sent after him to take him to Fayette county for trial. Nothing has been heard from her since, and Joel took out the writ of habeas corpus. Messrs. Goodwin and Anderson, Joel's attorneys, made two points with reference to the legality of his imprisonment. They insisted that a man could not be held an unreasonable time, as from the 21st of August to the present time and without any committing trial. Also, that the warrant was void, as the affidavit had never been signed. This defect, upon examining the paper, was found to be as alleged, and probably arose from an oversight of Judge Ezzard's. The court sustained both of these positions, and ordered Joel to be released upon the payment of costs. There was no appearance for the state.

RAILROAD MAGNATES.—The executive committee of the Green line met here yesterday and transacted general business. The following compose the committee:

G. J. Foreacre, superintendent Atlanta division Central R. R.
Virgil Powers, superintendent and engineer Southwestern R. R.
C. W. Anderson, G. F. A. N. C. and St. Louis R. R., and W. and A. R. R.

OPENING OF THE CAMPAIGN.

Grand Ratification Meeting and Barbecue in DeKalb—Over Twenty-five Hundred People Out—Speeches of Hon. M. A. Candler, Dr. H. V. M. Miller, Col. T. C. Howard and Col. E. Y. Clarke.

SPLENDID BARBECUE AND GRAND GALA DAY.

Notwithstanding that through the miscarriage of a letter addressed to the superintendent of the Georgia railroad, no extra train was sent out from Atlanta yesterday, consequently cutting off between 700 and 800 persons who would have attended, over twenty-five hundred persons gathered in Decatur yesterday. The town was ALIVE WITH PEOPLE.

and every grove filled with vehicles. It was a general turn out from all parts of the county. A brilliant feature of the occasion was the attendance of who came out to do honor to Milt Candler whom they all love. The speaking came off in the grove in front of the Georgia railroad depot. On the speaker's stand were gathered the democratic executive committee, many old democrats

MANY FAIR WOMEN,

AND DISTINGUISHED MEN.

Among the latter were Senator John B. Gordon, Gen. A. H. Colquitt, Dr. H. V. M. Miller, Hon. John H. James, Col. T. C. Howard, Col. R. A. Alston, Col. E. Y. Clarke, Hon. T. Q. Cassels, of Liberty county, and others.

The exercises were opened by a brief introductory address by C. F. Akers, chairman of the democratic executive committee. His speech was as beautiful as it was brief, and as orthodox as it was ornate. At its close he introduced the gallant standard-bearer for the fifth congressional district, Hon. M. A. Candler, who delivered, in substance, amid repeated applause, the following address:

SPEECH OF HON. M. A. CANDLER.

Ladies, my friends, and fellow-citizens of DeKalb:

I have met you on many occasions, but none like the present. We have met on occasions of great interest to you and myself, but never on one in which there was more and dearer interests involved to yourselves and country, nor where there was more reason for you to be interested in vital matters relating to your homes and firesides. The dearest interests we have are affected by the course of the government and the measures proposed by it.

You have been told that I am the standard bearer of a particular party. I am presented to you by the party as its standard bearer to represent principles which are near and dear unto you, and opposed to all that is hurtful to the constitution and the welfare of the country.

UNDER WHICH KING?

It is well for you to consider whether those principles are true or not, and whether they are worthy of your support. Every interest worthy of preservation is involved in the questions now to be decided. To make the matter plain and easy understood, it will be well to consider the past history of the country and of parties, especially of that party now administering the government. Contrast the principles which actuate that party with those that actuated the democratic party, and say which party should direct the affairs of this government.

HISTORY OF PARTIES.

There has been ever since the government was established, two great parties that divided the country, and contested the right to govern it. One was satisfied with the constitution and its limitations, and held those who administered the government to a strict construction of that constitution, and who maintained that the object of the government was for the good of all and to the injury of none. Early in the history of the government was this division made. This party became alarmed when the other proposed to subvert the constitution and exercise powers unknown to it, for the purposes, they claimed, of having a strong government, which could dispense much patronage and give protection to one class to the injury of all other classes.

THE GREAT QUESTIONS.

The questions now before you and to be considered, are near akin to those questions which alarmed the friends of the government in its early history, and more vital to your interests and social well-being, than any that have been presented to the American people since 1789. It was claimed under John Adams by that party that the government could interfere with the relations of citizens in the states and declare what were crimes, and affix punishment for such crimes, and claimed that the president could exercise certain powers, both judicial and legislative, outside and beyond any power delegated by the constitution. They claimed that the president had a right to determine who could remain in the country and who should be compelled to leave it. This created great alarm among the people. They met in conventions and assemblies, and passed such laws and measures as they deemed necessary to preserve the best interests of the country. That party was driven from power, and the other party which held the principles, we contend for to-day, assumed the control of government, and continued for more than sixty years to administer it, under the conviction that the constitution of the United States was made to protect the general welfare, and not for the benefit of the few, according to its letter and true spirit, giving protection to every one and injury to none.

Whether the party was called republican, states rights, whig or democrat, the administration of the government was in the interests of the people, and in accordance with the constitution. The government was respected and loved by every section and every class.

THE PARTY OF PLUNDER.

But during this time of prosperity there were those who did not love the government because it protected the interests of all the people, but because they wished to be a privileged class and among the favored few. In order to accomplish their nefarious purposes they took advantage of the prejudices existing against slavery and inflamed the public mind that they might float into power and plunder. They made that the question in 1836, 1840, 1852, 1856, and in 1860 under the name of republicans they were successful in obtaining control of the government. From that time to the present it has been administered by the republican party. They claim and as far as they can, exercise unlimited power, restrained by no constitution which must bend or break to serve their purposes. They administer the government not for the good of the whole people but in the interests of the party in a spirit of hate and to the injury of one portion of the country.

What was the effect on the minds of the people when they came into power? Had they not just cause for alarm? What was the result? A desolating war. By whom was this war inaugurated and carried on but by the republican party. The war with its desolation swept over the country. Not content with robbing us of our property, they now seek to create an antagonism of races, they seek to keep their party in power, regardless of consequences.

They emancipated the slaves, gave them the franchise, and now seek to degrade the whites to their level. To carry out their purposes they seek to elevate the negro to enable them to tyrannize over the whites. To accomplish their ends they disfranchised leading men, good and true, and enfranchised ignorant and degraded negroes. That is not enough. They seek now the passage of the so-called civil rights bill or more truly, a social equality bill. What is all this for? Is it to elevate the negro? Rather is it not to degrade the whites? And all for the purpose that they may retain power.

THE PARTY OF HATE.

They are not satisfied with simply degrading the whites, and depriving some of the best and most intelligent of the right to vote, or have any influence in the government, but they propose to grant that power to the ignorant and degraded negro, and to make him competent to vote and hold office. And your dearest interests and rights are to be entrusted to the colored people, who have already demonstrated to the world their incapacity to administer any civilized government—a race without virtue or intelligence, who exercise political power not for their own good. No, my friends, that is not the secret. The reason is that they may perpetuate power in that party that hates you and does not love them—a party that hates the constitution of our fathers.

THE PARTY OF OUTRAGE.

The party in power in all the southern states called the republican party, are now before you, still pursuing their course of outrage and wrong. Nothing is too monstrous for them to do. They make war on the whole white race of the south; their hatred extends to old and young; they have no respect for sex or age; they aim not to elevate the negro but to degrade the whites; they have given them the privilege of voting and holding office. Thus to accomplish their purposes they are willing to sacrifice constitutions; to destroy lives and property; constitutional liberty must go; a general leveling must take place, not by raising the lowly, but by degrading the high to the lowest debasement.

This party now proposes a measure for your approval, called the

and for this they ask the endorsement and votes of the American people. This measure has been prepared by members of that party distinguished for their ability, and is emphatically a republican measure.

You have heard distinguished men say that Gen. Grant, though the head of the party, is better than the party itself. They say it is better to have him in power, even though you should have an empire; in fact, a one-man power and a strong government, to get rid of this measure. Better submit to that lest a worst evil come upon you.

AWAY WITH ALL SUCH TRIMMING

and tinkering! Away with all such crooked paths and by-ways! Let us enquire for the good old paths of our fathers. Let us return to the old land-marks. Let us see that they are clearly established by the light of the constitution! The good old ways of honesty and patriotism followed by Washington and our illustrious forefathers. This is the only safe highway to the country's prosperity, and no matter what others may say, let say that he wants Grant or any body else for a term that Washington would not accept, [immense applause] no matter who recommends it.

WHAT FREEMAN DID.

This bill passed the senate and went to the house, where it was tabled. Freeman, who claimed to be your legal representative and to speak for you, voted to take it up. The question now before you in this canvass is, shall this measure become a law. You have now an opportunity to speak, in tones not to be misunderstood, what is your will in the matter.

THE PROVISIONS OF THE BILL.

The bill provides, that all citizens of the United States within its jurisdiction shall be entitled to what? Not to protection of property, for that is not denied! Not to protection of political rights, as that is secured to them! Not for the protection of their person, for no one denies that! There is no denial of citizenship, of civil rights, or of any other right, that we hold by virtue of citizenship. Yet the congress of the United States, controlled by the party which has destroyed everything hitherto held sacred by our wisest and best men, now propose to take another step in the downward course. That step is, that all citizens of the United States shall be entitled to equal and full enjoyment of privileges, accommodations, and advantages in all places where people meet together in public places as members of society.

You are to meet with them in every public place, hotels, railroads, public schools, churches, social gatherings, in fact entitling them to full and equal privilege of every other citizen, no matter what his race or standing. You must be together everywhere, even in agricultural colleges, benevolent institutions and grave yards sustained in part by public contributions. There you shall be together in contact. You will not be allowed to say to a negro when he takes a seat by your wife or daughter that you object.

IS THIS NOT TO DEGRADE.

If there is any elevation in intelligence and virtue is not the tendency of this law to degrade them to the level of the ignorant and vicious? Is it not humiliating to think that a great government should stoop to say that there shall be that there shall be no such thing as elevation or virtue or honesty, but one dead and uniform level, and that the lowest! Thoughts like these should prompt those who value their country's welfare to lock shields and march forward to defeat these vile measures, and to frown down those who can look with complacency on such propositions.

To accomplish their fell purposes everything must be swept away. State constitutions they disregard. Omnipotent congress declares it to be a crime for you to say to a man,

"I DON'T WANT YOU IN MY HOUSE,"

or to a man who sits by you in the car to request him to move to another seat. Any one who denies to any citizen these privileges, and he who aids or advises any one to do so, is subject to criminal prosecution, fine and imprisonment, and part of your property goes to the aggrieved. Thus your and at the mercy of every unscrupulous and designing adventurer who will use the negro as a cat's paw to aggrandize himself. Though the negro may not feel aggrieved, yet he can recover $500 out of your property. And this is the level to which the republican party has brought this country. It is unnecessary to say to you that no such power is in the constitution of the United States.

PROPERTY AND LIBERTY ARE IN JEOPARDY,

Will not these measures

GET YOUR PROPERTY?

The United States courts have exclusive jurisdiction of these cases. Your neighbor, a colored man, can sue you for $500 in the United States courts, and to ensure it going against you, the officers of these courts are sworn to prosecute all such cases. There can be no escape from the ferocious monster—the federal dragon! It was intended that there should be none, as all necessary means are provided to enforce it.

My friends have I not demonstrated to you that this party

OUGHT TO BE DRIVEN FROM POWER.

The liberty, peace and safety of the country demand it. Yet they have the audacity to ask you to endorse their measures and continue them in power. What will be your response.

These measures are not for

THE NEGRO'S BENEFIT,

or in accordance with his desires, but solely to perpetuate the radical party in power. Many of them have their own churches and schools, and do not desire to intrude upon the white people. The section of the school law requiring separate schools in Georgia, was drawn up by a colored member of the legislature. The negroes themselves do not ask or require it, but their pseudo friends say no matter whether you wish it or no you shall be mixed together.

EVERY INTEREST IS TO BE ATTACKED.

Your liberty, your property, your social rights and privileges. They propose to subvert the constitution of the state, and set aside the state courts. Not satisfied with this they propose to furnish jurors for your state courts. Penalties are prescribed for ordinaries or commissioners who refuse to put them on, and for sheriffs who refuse to summon them. All the great interests established by the constitution are to be attacked by this measure. And for what? In order to control the black race. They say to them, "your only safety is in the United States courts;" that the state courts are unsafe and that we would deprive them of their rights. They are

EXCITING ANTAGONISM OF RACES

that they may keep in power. Are not these charges true? Not long since they assembled from all parts of the country to consider how they might win success in the coming contest. They proposed to "fire the northern heart" by stimulating and exciting murders in the south to prove that there is no protection for the negro under state laws. Everything must be sacrificed to perpetuate the party in power, even to the destruction of the negro himself. What party is opposed to all this? It is the democratic party. We propose to prevent all these wrongs by and place. All who oppose these wrongs and the party who subverts the constitution, no matter by what name called, will be found in our ranks. There are but two sides to this question. You must be either

DRIVING THEM FROM POWER

FOR US OR AGAINST US.

No white man will be found against us.

The leaders of the other party are quitting it. When you hear men rest their claims for office on the ground that they can get more out of the government, and can steal more than a democrat, you know that all they care for the government is the plunder they can get out of it. Have they not been the PARTY OF PLUNDER IN GEORGIA?

Did they not take large toll from everything in their hands? Did not they steal the tools from the penitentiary convicts, furniture from the governor's mansion, stationery, and depleted a railroad and left it in debt. They even stole your credit and wrote it on millions of fraudulent bonds. This is the development of radicalism in Georgia in the bud? What will it be in its full bloom? Do you want any more of this radicalism? [Voices in the crowd, No! No!]

If anybody ought to be opposed to the radicals it should be the negroes, for depends on the defeat of the measures proposed by this party of hate and plunder. Their only safety, as ours, lies in a return to constitutional government. (Applause).

COL. THOMAS C. HOWARD

was next introduced, and enchained the audience for twenty minutes in an impassioned and eloquent strain. He considered it a useless task to talk to a white man about voting against the civil rights bill. It was replete with burning thoughts, and a synopsis would fail to do him justice.

THE NEXT SPEAKER WAS THE DEMOSTHENES OF THE MOUNTAINS,

Dr. H. V. M. Miller, who paid a glowing compliment to Hon. M. A. Candler, whom he had known from boyhood. It was impossible for him to go wrong. His mother taught him to shun grogshops and vice, and vote for Howell Cobb, which he faithfully followed. He compared him to the Apostle Paul as mighty in speech, and powerful in writing. In the time that tried men's honesty as a member of the Georgia legislature Candler came out unscathed, having met them at every point and exposed them. He spoke at length on the fundamental principles of government, giving them in a clear and concise form. The evil of government was too much legislation. Protection was all that was desired. He urged the people not to forget to go to the polls on the day of the election. Let a unanimous protest against the iniquity go up from them. While some were despondent he had anticipations of a brilliant future for our country after we had surmounted our difficulties. During its delivery he was frequently interrupted with applause.

COL. E. Y. CLARKE.

Editor of this paper delivered a speech of about thirty minutes length. At its conclusion dinner was announced.

THE BARBECUE

was a success. The meats were well cooked, and everything was in abundance. The crowd had plenty to eat, and did full justice to the viands set before them.

GEN. L. J. GARTRELL

was detained from being present by indisposition.

After dinner the crowd returned to the stand when the condidates for the legislature in Dekalb were catechised on leading questions.

THE CANDIDATES' CATECHISM.

The candidates were catechised as to their status on the fraudulent bonds; on the fence law; on a dog law; on the bird law; on the removal of the courthouse; on the change of county lines; on the homestead law; on the school law; and on prohibition.

COL. J. J. MORRISON.

He was opposed to paying the bonds; opposed to the fence law; opposed to the removal of the courthouse; opposed to changing the county lines; thought the present homestead law too large; favored a tax on dogs; thought the present school law defective. If the people considered it their duty to nominate him it would be his duty to accept and serve them.

GILES L. HUMPHRIES.

He thought the bonds fraudulent; didn't believe that Bullock was a legal governor, and therefore would oppose the payment of the bonds; he was opposed to a fence law, because the farmers did not desire it half as much as railroads; he favored a tax on dogs, there were too many and they killed too many sheep; the bird law was of little use; he favored the court house staying where it is; he opposed changing of the county lines; he considered the present school law of no benefit and that the money passed through too many hands; he favored punishing men for selling mean whisky.

O. WINNINGHAM.

He had never considered the bond question much, but with the lights before him he should vote against paying them; he considered the old fence law good enough; favored a tax on dogs above a certain number; would not vote for removal of courthouse unless the people desired it removed; opposed change of county lines; thought the present school system inefficient and productive of little benefit; thought the man who sold mean whisky ought to be prosecuted; the present homestead too large; did not favor cutting off a portion of the county to Rockdale. If nominated he would endeavor to discharge his duty, representing the whole people of the county, and not a section or the interests of the few.

HON. JOHN C. RAGSDALE.

He opposed paying the fraudulent bonds and differed with the views of Ben Hill and Governor Brown; he favored the fence law, but would vote against it being introduced into the legislature as a law had already been passed; it depended entirely on the shape of the dog law bill whether he voted for it; favored the court house remaining where it is; the county lines should remain as they are unless a strong necessity exists for a change; he thought the present school system a curse to the country; he thought the homestead law a curse to the country; he cared little for the bird law, it prevented negroes from hunting on farms; he didn't believe any good whisky was ever made, and was opposed to the licensing of a man to sell it; he was a twin and never had but a half showing; he would make no pledge; an honest man would be honest anywhere; if one dime's worth of whisky would seat him in the legislature for twenty-five years he would never go. [Great applause, the ladies cheering.]

J. W. A. TUFTS.

He thought the bonds begotten in iniquity, and would never vote to pay them, in or out of the legislature; thought the fence law a bad policy; favored a tax on dogs; opposed a removal of the courthouse; while he would present any petition for change of the county lines, would vote against it; opposed the homestead law; thought the school law could be amended; thought the present road laws defective, and favored collection of poll tax to have roads worked; if elected would represent the people of the county.

WITHDRAWN.

Mr. Elijah Steward, an old and sterling democrat, withdrew from the race as a candidate for the legislature.

Jacob Braswell withdrew from the field as a candidate for tax collector.

RATIFICATION.

Just before dinner, Col. Thomas C. Howard moved that the nomination of Hon. Milton A. Candler be ratified, and all pledge themselves to vote for and work for him, which was unanimously carried.

THE NOMINATIONS

for a candidate for the legislature and county officers takes place to-morrow, by primary elections in the several precincts.

HEAVY ON THE POLICE COMMISSIONERS.—Justice Butt yesterday rendered a decision in a criminal case, which will probably make our board of police commissioners open their eyes pretty wide. The case was against a man named W. F. Kersey. The warrant against him was sworn out by Mr. W. A. Bonnell, the guardhouse keeper, and charged him with perjury. A few weeks ago Kersey was arrested and locked up in the guardhouse for some violation of the city ordinances. After he had been tried by the recorder, paid his fine and released, he made a complaint against Bonnell to the board of commissioners, alleging that a certain sum of money he had upon his person when carried to the guardhouse had been taken away by Bonnell and never returned. These charges were investigated by the board, and after a full hearing, in which Kersey signally failed to sustain his charge, the entire proceedings were dismissed. Bonnell subsequently had Kersey arrested for perjury in certain evidence he gave before the commissioners on oath. This perjury case was tried yesterday. The defendant demurred to the charge upon the ground, that under the law creating the board of police commissioners, no authority is given them to administer oaths. After argument the demurrer was sustained and the perjury case dismissed at the prosecutor's cost.

This ruling of Justice Butt is an important one. If it is the law at present that the board of police commissioners cannot administer oaths, then the board ought to see to it that this authority is conferred upon them by the next legislature. The inability to swear a witness, if it exists, would throw a grave doubt upon the legality of any of the board's decisions when acting as a court, and it would be well to have this question settled at once.

MADISON AND ITS ATTRACTIONS.

Politics in Morgan.

MADISON, GA., Sept. 8, 1874.

Editors Constitution: The democrats of Morgan county nominated as their candidate for the legislature, Mr. Oscar Thomason, a prominent merchant of this place. We can truly say that the democrats of Morgan did their duty in selecting a man of good practical sense, in selecting a man who will represent them well in the coming legislature. We only hope that the democratic voters of this county will turn out en masse on election day, and elect their candidate, Mr. Thomason, by an overwhelming majority.

Madison is one of the most pleasant little cities in Georgia. The business portion of Madison presents quite a city appearance. We have some business houses, as well as private residences, that would reflect credit upon the first cities in Georgia. Col. A. G. Foster, a large capitalist of this place, is erecting a magnificent brick building upon the northern side of the public square. When completed it will be a model specimen of architecture, and will add greatly to the appearance of the business portion of our little city.

Mr. F. B. Martin, one of our most prominent merchants, is building a fine brick store upon Main street.

All the business houses built in Madison, since the great fire in 1869, are brick.

A grand entertainment was given at the palatial residence of Col. A. G. Foster, last Thursday night, to his scholarly son and accomplished daughter, who have just returned from the north from college. It was one of the grandest entertainments that we have ever seen. It was undoubtedly the party of the season. A splendid Atlanta band was in attendance, which discoursed sweet music. "Tripping the light fantastic toe" was kept up until long after midnight. There were plenty of beautiful young ladies present, who added greatly to the enjoyment of all, especially the young men. Among the belles present, we noticed, were the charming Miss F., the handsome Miss J., the accomplished Miss B., the lovely Miss H., the beautiful Miss N. We are sorry that we have not the time to particularize. But suffice it to say, that Madison is admitted to have the prettiest and most accomplished young ladies of any city in Georgia, or we may say in the south, and that plenty of them graced this occasion with their charming presence. More anon, adieu.

The Calhoun Convention—Who was Not There.

ROME, GA., Sept. 8, 1874.

Editor Commercial:—When in Atlanta a few days ago, I was conversing with a few gentlemen in front of the Kimball house. Col. Whidby, of the CONSTITUTION, was passing, and in doing so stopped and spoke to me. The subject being talked of was the Calhoun convention. In some remarks to Col. Whidby I stated that I was not in nor at the convention, at Calhoun, and that his correspondent was mistaken in saying that I was, or words to that effect. I did not state that I was not at Calhoun on that day. I was in Rome on the day the convention met to nominate county officers and delegates to the Calhoun convention. I was neither in nor at that convention, but Col. Bass was in Rome and also in and at that convention.

Col. Whidby does not state that I said I was not at Calhoun, but from his language he may have understood me to mean that. Hence his statement can be so construed.

DANIEL S. PRINTUP.

Colonel Printup was at the National hotel and informed us that he was "not at the congressional convention at Calhoun." We so stated. We understood him to mean that he was not in the convention or about.

PRACTISING THEIR ENGINE.—The members of Mechanic, No. 2, had their steamer out in front of her house yesterday afternoon for the purpose of testing her abilities. Under eighty pounds pressure of steam she made the water fly. The members say that their steamer is not in as thorough repair as they would like to have her, but as No. 1 is now being overhauled, they will have no chance of putting her into the shop until after the fair. The fire regulations permit only one engine to be taken off duty at a time. No. 2 will have to enter the contest as she is, but that will not prevent her making a good report for herself.

THE JUSTICES' COURT.—Justice Butt had a busy time yesterday. Besides the Kersy perjury case, elsewhere alluded to, he sent a white man named John Malone to jail for larceny from the house. He also sent to the same place a colored barber named Owen Tilton, for rocking a little nigger.

Justice Walker spent a large portion of the day trying a man named William Gray on a possessory warrant, and for deserting his children. His wife sued out both the warrants. We did not learn the decision.

LOCAL AND BUSINESS NOTICES.

REMOVAL.—Messrs. Meador & Bro. have removed from Whitehall street to No. 15 Granite block, on Broad street, at the late stand of A. T. Finney. They invite inspection of their full stock of tobacco and cigars and liquors, which they offer at wholesale to the trade at fair prices. Their stocks are full, and embrace all standard brands. They will be glad to see all their old friends and patrons and as many new ones as possible, at No. 15 Granite block, Broad street.

SEPTEMBER.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, FOR THE CURE OF CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS.

The great virtue of this medicine is that it ripens the matter and throws it out of the system, purifies the blood, and thus effects a cure.

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC, FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, ETC.

The Tonic produces a healthy action of the stomach, creating an appetite, forming chyle, and curing the most obstinate cases of Indigestion.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, FOR THE CURE OF LIVER COMPLAINT, ETC.

These pills are alterative, and produce a healthy action of the liver without the least danger, as they are free from calomel, and yet more effacious in restoring a healthy action of the liver.

These remedies are a certain cure for Consumption, as the Pulmonic Syrup ripens the matter and purifies the blood. The Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, create a healthy bile, and remove all diseases of the liver, often a cause of Consumption. The Sea Weed Tonic gives tone and strength to the stomach, makes a good digestion, and enables the organs to form good blood; and thus creates a healthy circulation of healthy blood. The combined action of these medicines, as thus explaines, will cure every case of Consumption, if taken in time, and the use of the medicine persevered in.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner SIXTH and ARCH STREETS, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. Schenck's medicines for sale by all druggists.

OPIUM ANTIDOTE.

Stop, Read, Reflect and Act Before it is too Late!

Dr. S. B. Collins' Painless

OPIUM ANTIDOTE

Is a perfect and painless cure for

The Habitual use of Opium, in any of its forms, whether as MORPHINE,

LAUDANUM,
ELIXIR, or GUM OPIUM

It Positively Produces a Permanent Cure.

IT is strange yet true, that as a rule it is the brightest intellects, the best members of society become addicted to this diseased appetite. A habit which makes them slaves, beclouds their minds, ruins their dispositions, and gives them in their more natural moments a hatred of self as well as a feeling that everybody despises them—to such an extent that society has no charms. But thanks to the Giver of all good, this morbid, terrible habit, and degraded condition, as well as all of the desire and feeling for opiates in any form is soon removed by this remarkable antidote, entirely so, and the weakened body and mind are invigorated, given renewed health until love and hope take the place of despondency and doubt. Though you may not be afflicted with the habit of using MORPHINE, LAUDANUM, or other forms of OPIUM, some friend may be, and you know it not, therefore let me ask you, in the name of suffering humanity to pass this on. By so doing you may reap the reward of those who do good. DELAY NOT.

BRINGING OUR SHEAVES WITH US.

BY FLORENCE PERCY.

The time for toil has past, and night has come—
  The last and saddest of the harvest eves;
Worn out with labor long and wearisome,
  Drooping and faint, the reapers hasten home,
      Each laden with his sheaves.

Last of thy laborers thy feet I gain,
  Lord of the harvest! and my spirit grieves
That I am burdened not so much with grain
As only with a heavier heart and brain;
      Master, behold my sheaves!

Few, light and worthless—yet their trifling weight,
  Through all my frame a weary aching leaves;
For long I struggled with my hapless fate,
And stayed and toiled till it was dark and late—
      Yet these are all my sheaves.

Full well I know I have more tares than wheat—
  Brambles and flowers, dry stalks and withered leaves,
Therefore I blush and weep, as at thy feet
I kneel down reverently and repeat,
      "Master, behold my sheaves."

I know these blossoms, clustering heavily
  With evening dew upon their folded leaves,
Can claim no value nor utility—
Therefore shall fragrancy and beauty be
      The glory of my sheaves.

So do I gather strength and hope anew,
  For well I know thy patient love perceives
Not what I did, but what I strove to do—
And though the full ripe ears be sadly few,
      Thou will accept my sheaves.

EYE AND EAR INSTITUTE.

EYE AND EAR INSTITUTE,

87 WHITEHALL STREET, ATLANTA, GA.,

J. W. GURLEY, M. D., Surgeon in Charge.

WITH THE OTOSCOPE FOR EXAMINING the Ear, the Opthalmoscope for examining the Eye, Laryngoscope for the Throat, he is able to detect, and treat successfully, troubles that have heretofore been considered incurable. As to his success in the treatment of Eye diseases, he invites attention to the following certificates:

ANDERSON, S. C., August 1, 1873.

This is to certify that I have been blind for the last three years, during which time I have spent several hundred dollars in trying to obtain relief, but without success. I had almost despaired of ever being able to see, when Dr. J. W. Gurley informed me that my case was Cataract, and by an operation, he believed that he could restore my sight. I consented, and on the 17th of February last, he operated upon my eyes. On the seventh day after, I was able to distinguish objects at a distance. My sight has improved ever since, and now (August 1st) feel that, with the aid of my glasses, I can see as well as any person of my age (67), and am able to attend to all my business—which tenders me a happy man, being brought from darkness to light. MATTHEW SNIPES.

WILLIAMSTON, South Carolina.

Dr. Gurley operated on my grandson for crossed eyes, and I can testify to his skill as an Eye Surgeon, by the happy results obtained in this case. The horrible deformity is completely removed, and the young man is rendered happy. WILLIS ALLEN.

BRADLEY'S MILLS, Abbeville C. H., S. C.

I was operated on for Cataract by a skilled surgeon of Augusta. Ga., and after being under his care for about four weeks, was discharged in a worse condition than when I went to him, inflammation having deprived me of the amount of vision I had before the operation. In this condition I consulted Dr. J. W. Gurley, who took my case in hand, and on the fifth day after, I was able to return to my family with the eyesight estored. Dr. Gurley's method of operating and after treatment are different and less rpainful than any I have undergone. J. B. ROBINSON.

Other references can be furnished as to patients already cured under his treatment. Arrangements have been made by which patients can obtain board and rooms at from $20 to $40 per month, where they will be under the personal supervision of the surgeon in charge. aug9-tf

DR. CALHOUN'S LIVER PILLS.

I AM engaged in the manufacture of the Celebrated Family Medicine, known as the Calhoun Liver and Anti-Bilious Pills, under the supervision and assistance of Dr. Calhoun himself. This Pill has been in use for the last 35 years, and has taken precedence over all other Family preparations by all that have used them. Thousands would certify to their great value if necessary. One fact should supercede any amount of certificates, and that fact is this: Dr. Calhoun has been physician to the Fulton County Prison for over seven years, when the number of prisoners ranged from 20 to 70, laboring under all the diseases incidental to this climate. With but few exceptions they have all been treated with this Pill, and astonishing to say during that long period not a solitary death occurred under his treatment. This fact is worth any amount of testimonials.

I am now prepared to fill orders from druggists, merchants and others. All orders sent me shall receive prompt attention. There is no type of FEVER, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, RHEUMATISM, CHOLERA MORBUS, BILIOUSNESS and SICK HEADACHE, or other diseases of a Southern climate, but yield readily to this preparation.
